The Illinois Farm Bureau in Illinois is a general farm organization which serves the agricultural community of the state. The Farm Bureau works to improve farm income and the quality of life. Farm Bureau services its members through a wide range of marketing, legislation, education, public relations, and business services. Basic to the strength of the Farm Bureau in Illinois is an organizational network of County Farm Bureaus with staff, officers, and local programs serving members throughout the state.

2013 ILLINOIS FARM BUREAU

Philip Nelson, President
Seneca, IL

Richard Guebert, Jr., Vice President
Ellis Grove, IL

---------

GOVERNMENTAL AFFAIRS AND COMMODITIES CONTACTS

Mark Gebhards - Executive Director
Kevin Semlow - State Legislation
Bill Bodine - State Legislation
Heather Combs - State Legislation
Christina Nourie - Northeast Legislative Coordinator
Adam Nielsen - National Legislation
Liz Hobart - National Legislation and Policy
Rae Payne - Business and Regulatory Affairs
Ryan Tracy - External Business Relations
Kevin Rund - Local Government
Brenda Matherly - Local Government
Tamara Nelson - Commodities
Doug Yoder - Market Education
Diane Handley - Specialty Crops and Labor
Cynthia Haskins - Local Food and Business Development
Mike Doherty - Economist
Jim Fraley - Livestock